ABOUT US

Terry and Vivian Flanagan founded the Ryan Patrick winery in 1996, naming it after their two sons, Ryan and Patrick. They planted some of the first wine grapes in what is now Washington State's newest American Viticultural Area (AVA), Ancient Lakes of Columbia Valley. Named after the 35 lakes that dot the area, the state's thirteenth AVA runs along a stretch of steep cliffs above the Columbia River and surrounds the town of Quincy, Washington.

Proudly crafted by Washington Wine Group in the heart of Washington State, we hand harvest and groom over 3,000 acres of vines from our esteemed vineyards within the Ancient Lakes and Wahluke Slope AVA. Our attention to detail and focus on each grape that enters our state-of-the-art facilities guarantees every bottle of wine we produce is done with delicacy and love. By taking our fruit in its prime, we exemplify the true character of our estate vineyards and display Washington's maximum potential by way of supreme wines.
