

HERE'S TO BOLD JOURNEYS

Like the basalt rock ingrained in the state's topography, the name Butch Milbrandt is deeply-rooted in Washington wine. In 1997, this fourth-generation farmer and his family took a bold risk in planting grapes and became recognized for helping establish two renowned wine regions: Ancient Lakes of the Columbia Valley and Wahluke Slope. Much like the long journey of basalt, the Milbrandts' perseverance and commitment to quality turned a family farm into world-class wines.
